I am writing to inform you of a recent organizational change within the AGCO, that has streamlined our organizational structure realigning core functions into six new Divisions and supporting our strategic direction. This new structure and reporting relationship to the CEO will maximize internal resources, enhance service delivery to our customers, stakeholders and the public, and ensure that government priorities and AGCO business plan initiatives are able to be launched more quickly and efficiently.

The Divisions and their new reporting relationships became effective July 20, 2011. An overview of the six Divisions, their Executive Leads and constituent Branches are as follows:

- Electronic Gaming Branch – Director, Sukhi Grewal
- Audit and Gaming Compliance Branch

❖ Strategy and Policy Division

Please note that the make-up of the AGCO's Branches, their respective Directors and our day-to-day operations remain intact, however, while the Audit and Gaming Compliance Branch will ultimately report to the Chief Operating Officer (Tom Mungham), there will be a transition period in which it will continue to report to George Sweny. During the transition period, your existing relationships with AGCO staff have not been affected, so please continue to contact them as usual.

Further changes will be taking place as we move forward with our change agenda and we will keep you apprised as they occur.

Should you have any questions on this realignment or any other issues affecting the AGCO or Ontario's alcohol and gaming sectors, please don't hesitate to contact me at any time.

Regards,
